January 25th , The Conversion of Saint Paul, Apostle – Feast

One man can change the world

The conversion of Paul the Apostle led him to cease persecuting early Christians and become follower of Jesus.

Paul had not been ambivalent toward the Church before he converted. But he changed, or God changed him, on one particular night. And on that night Christianity changed too. And when the course of Christianity changed, the world changed. It is difficult to overemphasize the impact of today's feast.

But the global scale of the effects of Paul's conversion speak to the significance of his conversion. On the road to Damascus he fell down. While stunned on the ground Paul heard the voice of Jesus: "Why are you persecuting me?" Jesus and the Church are clearly one. To persecute the Church is to persecute Christ. Jesus is the head and the Church is his body.

To love Jesus is to love the Church and vice versa. It is impossible to love the Lord while disregarding the historical reality of how the Lord is communicated to us. The Church is not just a vehicle to carry God's revelation. The Church is actually part of God's revelation.

Paul's conversion teaches us that when Jesus come to us, He doesn't come alone. He comes with His angels, saints, priests, and bishops. He comes with Mary, the sacraments, doctrine, and devotions. He comes with the Church because he and the Church are one. And when we go to the Lord we don't go alone either. We go as members of a Church into whose mystical body we were baptized. Thus St. Paul heard from God Himself, and thus we believe today.

St. Paul, we ask your openness to conversion when we hear the Lord speak to us as He spoke to you. Assist us in responding with great faith to every invitation we receive to love the Lord more fully, to know Him more deeply, and to spread his word more broadly to those who need it.

ESPACIO CATEQUÍSTICO

"EL CATEQUISTA ES EL CORAZÓN DE LA IGLESIA"

En nuestro Espacio Catequístico, hoy haremos una pequeña reflexión en relación con nuestro ser de catequistas; compartiremos sobre la oración en nuestra vida de creyentes catequistas. La Madre Teresa de Calcuta decía que si no queremos morir de una anemia espiritual debemos alimentar nuestro espíritu y el espíritu se alimenta con oración.

El catequista debe ser un hambriento de Dios, y para ello la oración ha de ir antes que todo, nadie puede excusarse en la falta del tiempo, porque lo que falta es el amor, decía San Pablo VI. Nunca podremos sustituir la oración por el trabajo. Nunca debe ocurrir esto.

A menudo nos llenamos de compromisos y tareas creyendo que haciendo muchas cosas es suficiente y perdemos ese momento precioso de encuentro con el Señor. Ciertamente la oración es un proceso que no termina en el espacio y en el tiempo específico, como la celebración de la eucaristía y la adoración eucarística, sino que se debe prolongar en todos los espacios de nuestra vida.

Debemos aprender a quedarnos en algún momento de nuestro tiempo con nuestro Padre, ese quedarse con el Padre equivale a la expresión hablar con Dios, es diferente hablar con Dios, que pensar en Dios. Siempre que hay trato con Dios hay oración. Pero ¿qué es la oración? Continuará...

UN MOMENTITO PARA DIOS

Señor Aquí estoy delante de Ti, para ponerme en tus manos: para decirte que te amo y que sin Ti mi vida es muy difícil. Concédeme el perdón por todas mis faltas y todo aquello con lo cual te he ofendido. Ayúdame a ser mejor todos los días, yo sé que puedo mejorar muchas cosas. Perdóname, sobre todo, si he hecho daño a alguien y bendice a quien haya hecho sufrir con mis actitudes.

Dame un corazón nuevo, para poderte amar como tú quieres. Yo te amo Señor y quisiera demostrártelo con mi propia vida. Si Tú me ayudas todo es más fácil. Me pongo en tus manos Señor, por mediación de la Santísima Virgen María, Nuestra Madre Admirable y en tus manos pongo también a los míos, para que los protejas y los ayudes siempre.

Bendíceme y guíame Señor En este nuevo día, no permitas que me aleje de Ti. Amén.
